The popular vocal quartet Windborne returns to FSGW for a workshop and concert in Silver Spring! Windborne's captivating show draws on the singers' deep roots in traditions of vocal harmony, while the absolute uniqueness of their artistic approach brings old songs into the present. Known for the innovation of their arrangements, their harmonies are bold and anything but predictable.

With a 20-year background studying polyphonic music around the world, Lauren Breunig, Jeremy Carter-Gordon, Lynn Rowan, and Will Rowan share a vibrant energy onstage with a blending of voices that can only come from decades of friendship alongside dedicated practice. The ensemble shifts effortlessly between drastically different styles of music, drawing their audience along on a journey that spans continents and centuries, illuminating and expanding on the profound power and variation of the human voice.

BBC Traveling Folk describes Windborne as “subverting expectations and redefining the genre [of vocal music]... just absolutely phenomenal!” Audiences and critics lavish praise upon the singers not only for their technical mastery, but for the passion, engagement, and connection with each other and the audience that imbues each performance with a rare power.

But there’s another, crucial dimension to Windborne that guides and roots their artistry. They are adherents to folk music’s longtime alliance with social activism, labor and civil rights, and other movements that champion the oppressed, the poor, and the disenfranchised. Their songs burst with lyrics that, while penned decades or centuries ago, still ring true in modern times, and Windborne’s dynamic harmonies breathe new life into these songs.

During the afternoon before the concert, you can learn how Windborne creates their stunning harmonies and unusual arrangements in a hands-on workshop. Windborne will teach traditional songs, songs of protest and freedom from their albums Of Hard Times & Harmony and Song on the Times, and folksongs from other cultures collected on their travels. All the songs and harmonies will be taught by ear by Jeremy, Lynn, Will and Lauren. Open to all ages!

Windborne Vocal Harmony Workshop:

■ FSGW HOUSE CONCERTS —CHRIS MILES AND GEARAIKH MATTHEWS

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, AT 7:30 PM IN EDGEWATER, MD
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, AT 8 PM IN SILVER SPRING, MD

Chris Miles is a superb Scottish singer from Fife, with a great voice and a large repertoire of songs – traditional, contemporary, serious, and comic; she used to sing in the group Palaver with Gordeanna McCulloch, Maureen Jelks and Aileen Carr. When she’s not singing, she’s an organizer as one of the folks behind the Fife Traditional Singing Weekend. And although she would be too modest to mention it in company, she has been awarded MBE for services to education and young people. (She was a nursery school headteacher [principal] and, until her recent retirement, an adviser to Fife County Council on Nursery Education.) Chris will be accompanied by her partner, the fine traditional Irish musician Gearaidh Matthews, on guitar.

Chris and Gearaidh are touring the United States this Fall. While in our area, they will be performing in two house concerts at FSGW Member’s homes. For reservations (space will be limited), or COVID information (including the possibilities of last-minute cancellations), contact the respective hosts. Please be COVID-vaxxed and boosted and not infectious at concert time. Masking might be required; and all arrangements are subject to last-minute changes brought on by the pandemic. A suggested donation of $15 (or more if you enjoy the concert and can afford it) would be appropriate for either concert.

On Saturday, Sept. 10, at 7:30 pm, they will be in Edgewater, MD, at the home of Dennis and Michele Callaghan. Contact Michele at callagh@verizon.net or 240-305-4263. Doors will open at 7:00 for preconcert socializing.

On Thursday, Sept. 15, at 8 pm, they will be in the Kemp Mill neighborhood of Silver Spring, MD, at the home of Max and Connie McKenna. Contact Connie at conniemck@comcast.net or 301-906-2453. Doors open at 7:30.

In addition to these two events, Chris and Gearaidh will be part of an outdoor Celtic Song Showcase at the Takoma Park Folk Festival on Sunday, Sept. 11. [See related article on page 14.]

■ FSGW DANCES ■

Calling all musicians!

GLEN ECHO, MD

SEPTEMBER 9

The Glen Echo Open Band is scheduled to play for the September 9 contra dance (organized by Friday Night Dancers and FSGW), which will take place in the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park. If you are interested in helping to provide exciting, high-energy live music for contra dancers, please join us! Musicians of all ages and skill levels are welcome to participate. Please note that all are strongly encouraged to preregister (which can be done here) and must abide by the following COVID policies during the dance:

- Masks (N95 / KN94 or equivalent) are required at all times (except for wind instrument players while they are playing).
- All participants must be vaccinated with at least one booster.
- If you have not checked in at a previous FND/FSGW dance, your vaccination status will be checked at the door. Please bring your card or a digital photo of your card and a government issued photo ID.

We welcome you to fill out a short survey to share any ideas you have about the Open Band (including past experiences if you have participated before, as well as hopes for the future). This is a strong, vibrant community that is a long-standing tradition at the Friday Night Dance, and the resumption of Open Band dances gives us an opportunity to re-examine what we've done in the past and build an even better band for the future. Please feel free to share the survey link with other musicians who may not have received this newsletter. We hope to see you on September 9!

FSGW AND THE FRIDAY NIGHT DANCERS JOINT CONTRA DANCE GLEN ECHO, MD • FRIDAYS LESSON AT 7:30 PM, DANCE AT 8 PM

FSGW and FND have joined to present four dances in September. There is a limit of 175 dancers for each dance. We will require everyone to be fully vaccinated and a booster if eligible, and masks will be worn by all. Vaccination cards will be checked at the door. Full information will be on the FSGW calendar and FND Facebook page.

GREENBELT INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCE • ONLINE
FRIDAYS • 7:30 PM

Friday night Greenbelt International Folk Dancing has gone “virtual”.

As we all practice good social distancing, many in our folk dance community are feeling the absence of our usually scheduled local dances. In response, please join us for the Greenbelt Virtual Folk Dance Session.

Let's keep dancing!

- Connect and dance in our own homes
- Watch hosts leading familiar dances
- See each other; listen and dance to our favorites

How: We will be using the ZOOM video conferencing app to share music and live videos of the leaders and each other. This can be used on a desktop, laptop, or smartphone.

What to Expect: Your hosts are Linda Mansdorf, Vita Hollander, Ben Hole, and John Robinson. Collectively they will play 25 to 30 dances, which should approximate the number of dances normally done on a Friday night in-person event.

The hosts will do a quick teaching or demonstration of the steps to some of the dances that may be less familiar to you or just as a refresher, but the session is not designed as a workshop, so the majority of the evening will be spent playing dances that many of us already know and love to do.

How To Join Us: Each week we will send an email with the Zoom Meeting link ID. Make sure John Robinson knows you would like to receive this email with the link.

BALTIMORE OLD TIME JAM BALTIMORE, MD TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6 • 7 PM

Big news! The legendary Baltimore Old Time & Bluegrass jams are coming to R. House (301 W. 29th Street) in Remington for two evenings of acoustic stringband music! It’s THE happening spot in town for food and community. Conveniently located, easy parking, plenty of space, good vibes and an electric, community-minded atmosphere - and we’re back to our typical Tuesday jam night.

Alex Lacquement & Lucas Chohany will lead the Baltimore Bluegrass Jam from 7 to 10 pm for a jam featuring bluegrass songs and instrumentals. Come with a song or two to lead – or just show up and jam along.

There is an abundance of free parking at R. House next to the venue or caddy-corner in the police department parking lot (available to R. House patrons). No more stress about finding a good parking spot! If all goes well, who knows – this may become a weekly jam at R. House. Let’s show the love to R. House for giving this a chance by turning out and ordering food and drinks! Best of all, the jam is FREE!

KARAN CASEY TRIO AND THE ALT ROCKVILLE, MD SEPTEMBER 13 • 7 PM

VIGÜELA: TRADITIONAL SONG AND MUSIC FROM CENTRAL SPAIN
ONLINE
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14
12 NOON – 12:30 PM

Vigüela is a traditional folk quintet who play traditional Spanish music, including jotás, seguidillas, fandangos, and sones, using the centuries-old singing styles, dialects, and instruments of their region. That region is Castilla-La Mancha, the southern part of the Iberian plateau, sometimes called “the heart of Spain,” or “Don Quixote country.” The band’s name comes from the traditional Spanish vihuela, a Renaissance model of the guitar. They also play lute, mandolin, guitarro manchego, and medieval fiddle or rebec, along with traditional percussion instruments such as castanets, spoons, and tambourines. They have been performing internationally for 30 years, and have recorded eight albums, bringing the music of their homeland to the global world music scene.

ROCKLANDS WINERY OLD TIME
JAM • POOLESVILLE, MD
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 • 6 PM

Some of you early participants of this jam may remember when we used to have it at Rocklands Winery. The jam will be hosted by Jonathan Vocke and will take place from 6 – 9 pm. I am overjoyed that we will again be able to go to the big barn at Rocklands to have a jam. We’ll have a slow jam from 6 to 6:45ish so come with your ideas and that you’ve been shedding for the past two years. All ages, skill levels, shapes, sizes and instruments are welcome.

Please join us!
14531 Montevideo Road
Poolesville, MD 20837

A comfortable armless chair will be a big help, so bring it if you have one. Also, please support the host venue by enjoying their wine. Outside snacks are welcome but there is a food truck for those of you looking for dinner at the venue.

JOHN FLYNN • COLUMBIA, MD
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17 • 7 PM

John Flynn is an American singer-songwriter and activist known for his powerful music and tireless efforts on behalf of “the lost and the lonely, the shackled and scarred”. His career has embodied an authentic troubadour odyssey that moved legendary folk DJ Gene Shay to call Flynn “the most quintessential folk singer in my life”, and Andrew L. Braunfeld of the Philadelphia Folk Festival to say, “It has been disappointing that the world of folk music has not, during the last half century, been creating many new heroes. John Flynn is a notable exception and is worthy of our respect as he follows the paths of Woody Guthrie, Phil Ochs and Kris Kristofferson.”

THE ARMAGH RHYMERS: MUSIC AND RHYME FROM IRELAND
ONLINE
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21
12 NOON – 12:30 PM

The Armagh Rhymers are one of the most celebrated traditional music and theatre ensembles on the island of Ireland. Since the 1970s, they have delighted audiences at festivals, arts centers, theatres, and schools, throughout Ireland and around the world with music, storytelling and drama. Their colorful costumes evoke a sense of tradition and history and encapsulate the spirit of the “wren boys,” young people who donned traditional disguises and went from house to house, entertaining their neighbors. The Armagh Rhymers draw on the rich history of this traditional Irish culture. The Rhymers’ philosophy is that every person has a right to experience live music, drama, and the arts. A major focus of their work is to promote tolerance, inclusivity, and understanding through the arts, for as poet and rhymers John Hewitt noted, “Over us all is the self-same sky.”

TLACUATZIN SON HUASTECO:
HUAPANGO MUSIC FROM MEXICO
ONLINE
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28
12 NOON – 12:30 PM

Tlacuatzin Son Huasteco is a trio playing the traditional music of Northeastern Mexico, known as Son Huasteco or Huapango music. Son Huasteco music is built around two small guitars, the jarana and the quinta, as well as the violin and the voice. Son Huasteco singing employs a distinctive and thrilling falsetto style. Improvisation plays a strong role in this music, with each group adding their own lyrics and arrangements to a standard repertoire of songs. The result is acoustic string-band music that is both traditional and contemporary, with direct emotional appeal. Tlacuatzin Son Huasteco uses their music to showcase the festive spirit of the people, the essence of the countryside, drawing on the teachings of traditional master musicians and the energy of newer generations. Named after the indigenous word for a small opossum native to their region of Mexico, Tlacuatzin espouses traditional Mexican values, including love for the land, multiculturalism, and respect for the diversity of human beings.
