WASHINGTON FOLK FESTIVAL

Sun. Oct. 19 • Noon–7 pm • Glen Echo Park MD

The Washington Folk Festival is back! Same festival but just one day, not two, so it will be super jam-packed with the most excellent folk music from the DC area!

Admittance to the festival is free every year because of VOLUNTEERS! That's right: performers, emcees, stage crew, sound engineers, operations, food servers and office staff all donate their time and their talents. As always, this year's festival needs you.

Volunteering takes only a few hours of your time. Tell us about some of your talents and interests and we will find a place for you to contribute to the Washington Folk Festival's ongoing success.

To volunteer for the festival, please fill out and submit the form here or email wffvolunteers@fsgw.org.

STORYTELLING

Our featured storytellers
this month are
April Armstrong and Queen Nur!

The Grapevine is spoken word performance for adults and teens, celebrating the timeless art of the story, hosted by storytellers Renée Brachfeld and Tim Livengood.

April Armstrong was raised by parents with lovely singing voices, and her father was a natural storyteller. The acting bug bit in second grade, playing a lovesick Martian in a musical. She knew that she was destined to entertain. Her mother told her to stop being so dramatic. Good thing she didn't listen. April now weaves melodies and words in a refreshing and compelling style of multi-cultural folktelling, including African-American and Latino stories. More about April

Queen Nur follows the griot tradition, with stories that capture historic victories, celebrate folkloric tradition, and speak to the essence of humanity. She has performed in 36 states, Ghana, Cameroon, and Canada, at such venues as the opening of the Smithsonian NMAAHC and as Emcee for the NEA Heritage Awards. She received the 2020 National Association of Black Storytellers' Zora Neale Hurston Award. More about Queen Nur

Lúnasa's Dave Curley and Colin Farrell at the Lyceum
Alexandria VA • Tues. Mar. 11
7:30 pm (doors 7 pm)

Dave Curley is one of Ireland's leading multi-instrumentalists and vocalists. Hailing from Co. Galway on the west coast of Ireland, Curley has brought his wealth of talents to the largest of stages in North America and Western Europe. He is a member of SLIDE, One for the Foxes, the Crannua Collective and regularly performs with award-winning fiddler and composer, Colin Farrell. One for the Foxes received "Album of the Year" for their 2020 release of Take a Look Around from the ACSLR Music Awards. More about Dave

Colin Farrell was born in Manchester, England, into a very musical family to parents from Co. Galway and Co. Cavan, Colin started playing the fiddle and tin whistle from an early age and won numerous titles at the Fleadh Cheoil. Since then, he has made a name for himself performing and recording with an array of great musicians in Europe and the US, including singers and groups such as Flook, Grada, Karen Casey, The Elders, Julie Fowles, Tim O'Brien, Natalie Merchant, Mary Chapin Carpenter, The Michael McGoldrick Band and is currently playing with the Ashley Davis band and Lúnasa. FSGW Co-sponsored Greenbelt International Folk Dance Greenbelt MD & Online Fridays • 8–9:30 pm

Weekly in-person international folk dancing has returned to Greenbelt with some sessions being in-person only, and others hybrid (in-person AND through Zoom). Occasionally, due to dance studio unavailability, some events will be Zoom only.

We do a variety of line, circle and couple dances mostly from the Balkans, Scandinavia and other parts of Europe. If you've ever wondered about music in odd rhythms—like 7, 9 and 11—come and get hooked on this wonderful music, which includes these great dance rhythms and more. The room where we dance has a beautiful sprung wood floor (please bring a clean change from your street shoes). We sometimes have special events, including dance workshops and live music nights. Newcomers and beginners are welcome!

When: (almost) Every Friday night
from 8 to 9:30 pm

Where: Greenbelt Community
Dance Studio, 15 Crescent Rd.
(Enter and depart the community center through the front door.)
For the Zoom link,

FSGW ELECTIONS

Recruiting New Board Members!!!

FSGW could not offer the hundreds of concerts, dances, festivals and other events each year without the many Society members who volunteer to make it all happen. The FSGW Board of Directors is recruiting Board members through our annual election process for a one-year term beginning on July 1. The Election Committee is compiling a slate of candidates for the May election for the 2025–2026 term and invites you to nominate candidates. You may offer your nominations for the FSGW Board at:

Saturday March 22 – FSGW Mid-Winter Festival • Alexandria VA • More info on p. 1

Come enjoy this FREE Folk Festival featuring musical performances, dance demonstrations, singing and instrument workshops, storytime for young folkies, family programming and more!

Programming 11 am–6 pm

Membership Meeting 12:45–1:15 pm

—25 members need to be present for a quorum.

Community Dance 7–10 pm

Nominations will be accepted from when we open the FSGW membership meeting at each event. These events are official Folklore Society meetings for the purpose of receiving nominations for the Board from the membership.

Nominations can also be submitted directly to the Election Committee (prior to April 1) by petition signed by five current FSGW Members. You can contact the Election Committee at:
